I recognize this is an official application of The Kernersville Arts and Crafts Guild; I will abide by the By-Laws (posted at www.thekacg.com) if accepted into membership. I also state that all items I will exhibit are handcrafted by me. All items submitted for jury by current Guild members or non-members desiring to join the Guild are required to be handcrafted by the applicant. The end state of all items submitted for jury consideration must show that the materials used in the creation of an art or craft were significantly altered from the original materials used and demonstrate that skill or expertise in that particular art or craft category has been applied.

I also understand that I cannot sell items with trademarks or copyrights at any KACG sponsored event.

Additionally, I understand this organization is run by volunteers and agree to support it in every way possible.

Any false information provided on this application will be grounds for disapproval of application or subsequent dismissal from the Guild.
